

Legal Services

Legal Services for Low Income Individuals/Families Low income individuals may also be able to obtain legal assistance through the Department of Social Services on some matters including child support payments and tenant/landlord complaints.

Albany Law School Clinic and Justice Center

80 New Scotland Ave.
Albany, NY 12208
Ph: 518-445-2328

This service is for low income individuals who live in Albany, Rensselaer, or Schenectady County. Legal services are available for the areas concerning health law, domestic violence, low income tax payer assistance, civil rights, and disability and unemployment benefits.

Legal Aid Society of Northeastern NY

55 Colvin Ave.
Albany, NY 12206

Ph: 518-462-6765
Ph: 1-800-462-2922
Website: www.legal-aid.org

Individuals and families who have low income, are homeless, or are cancer patients can receive free or reduced cost legal assistance.

Elder Law

Elderly residents who cannot afford to purchase the services of a lawyer have access to lawyers and legal assistance through their local Office for the Aging.

Antokol Reisman & Coffin

514 State St.
Schenectady, NY 12305

Ph: 518-370-2500

Brockbank, Michael T.

1494 Wendell Ave.
Schenectady, NY 12308

Ph: 518-374-6815

Katzman Law Firm PLLC

125 High Rock Ave
Saratoga Springs, NY 12866

Ph: 518-587-5500

Burke & Casserly

Cheri Terzian
255 Washington Ave.
Albany, NY 12205

Ph: 518-452-1961

Fax: 518-452-4230

Email: cterzian@burkecasserly.com

Website: www.burkecasserly.com

Walsh & Walsh LLP

42 Long Alley
Saratoga Springs, NY 12866

Ph: 518-583-0171